

Freedom Climber

The Freedom Climber is made specifically for children under five years of age.

It is designed to exercise a child's balance by focusing on upper body strength, coordination and motor planning skills. The open design allows therapists and parents to assist children while in use.

Great for facilities or home-based therapists as the Freedom Climber is light-weight and easy to transport.

Features

- ▶ Inverted plane of powder-coated steel
- ▶ Foam-covered center bar
- ▶ 1" poly webbing with 3" openings
- ▶ Rubber floor protectors
- ▶ Portable (A)
- ▶ Flat folding for easy storage (B)
- ▶ Holds up to 100 lbs.
- ▶ Assembly required

FREEDOM CLIMBER

User Benefits

- ▶ Infant Gross Motor Programming (C)
- ▶ Body orientation (D)
- ▶ Balance (E)

Usage

- ▶ Climbing Wall/Ladder (F)
- ▶ Tunnel/Enclosure (G)

- ▶ Ask about tactile kit ideas.
- ▶ A carrying case is available and opens up into a padded floor mat.

